Supreme Court Decisions.

The head notes of the Decisions of the Supreme Court, for the last term, are now ready, in pamphlet form, at this office. Price, one dollar.

Hon. Clifford Anderson.

The Macon Telegraph says of this gentleman—who was elected by the State Executive Committee, on Tuesday, as their chairman—that all who know him well will concede him to be a safe man. It says "there is no cooler or clearer head on young shoulders in Georgia."

Captain Harry Jackson.

Governor Bullock's organ stated that it was rumored that Captain Jackson would run for the Legislature as an independent candidate if he was not nominated by the convention.

We are requested by that gentleman to state that the rumor is wholly incorrect, and that under no circumstances would he pursue a course so improper and so unjust to the party. He will cheerfully abide the action of the convention.

The New York Democracy.

The New York Democracy is almost as progressive as the Louisiana Democracy. The latter accepted the 15th amendment in good faith. The former lays down this as the tenth plank in its platform:

That, as many of the issues which have divided good citizens in the past are now settled, we invite all conservative citizens, irrespective of former political differences, to unite with us in securing the ascendency in the government of the principle on which it was established, and which, while sustained by the majority of the American people, secured peace and prosperity for all.

The Dalton Fair.

We have received from Mr. L. D. Palmer, Secretary of the North Georgia Agricultural and Mechanical Association, an invitation to the Fair to be held in Dalton, beginning the 5th of October. THE CONSTITUTION will endeavor to be represented.

Andrew Johnson has consented to deliver the address. Herschel V. Johnson will also be on hand and deliver an address. The presence and speeches of these two distinguished men will form a strong attraction.

Trains will carry persons to this Fair for half-fare. We wish our North Georgia friends success in this enterprise.

Bullock Trying to Provoke Conflict.

We learn that Bullock has sent a commission to a negro in Bryant county, countersigned by General Terry, authorizing the negro to supersede the Sheriff in his office, and directing the Ordinary of the county to administer the oath of office to the negro appointee, which the Ordinary has refused to do.

We have heard nothing of the pretexts upon which Bullock seeks to remove the Sheriff from office. Whatever they may be, there can be no justification or excuse for the outrageous and wanton insult which he offers to the good people of Bryant county, and which can only be accounted for upon the supposition that it is designed to exasperate and provoke violence for political effect.

While Akerman's iniquitous election bill is pending in the House, a riotous demonstration, with the sacrifice of a few lives, would be a God-send to the Radical party. We trust, however, that the prudence and forbearance which has thus far characterized our people under wrongs, insults and outrages of the most aggravating character will not forsake them, and that no pretext will be given for further oppressions which are meditated by our unscrupulous enemies and their contemptible minions.

There are some evils that work their own cure. Villainy cannot prosper for ever. [Savannah News.

The Akerman Election Bill Clinched.

To-day the effort to reconsider the Akerman election infamy failed. It will go to the Senate for the concurrence of that body in the little amendment which gives to the Ordinary the appointment of two of the election managers.

It will get this concurrence. We have yet to learn of the Senate ever failing to obey the behest of Radical authority. The approval of Governor Bullock is a foregone conclusion. The bill, therefore, seems to be our law.

It is difficult to write calmly of such an outrage as this. We showed this morning that it conflicted with the constitution of the State and the laws of Congress. It is a ruthless, crushing blow at some of the most precious liberties of the people. And the manner in which it has been carried through has been almost as great a wrong as the measure itself.

The feeling has been intense. The greatest excitement has prevailed for two days.

We are compelled to take it in its iniquity, unless a returning sense of honesty may strike those who have favored it, and a supplemental bill may be passed correcting some of the palpable wrongs of the law. Let us hope this may be done, though it seems a slim hope.

But let it be known that it could not have been passed but for the folly and absence of Democrats.

State Road Figures.

Editors Constitution: Allow a card from a railroad man. I'm looking over A. L. Harris' report to the Superintendent of the Western and Atlantic Railroad, dated September 1, 1870. He says: Since January 1, 1870, he has laid thirteen miles of new track, which cost, for iron, clamps, bolts and spikes:

For labor on 13 miles at $400 00 per mile			5,200 00
Total for 13 miles....			150,032 63
Or for one mile....			11,541 00
See estimate for next 40 miles per mile,			9,875 00

Green Line Excursion.

NASHVILLE, TENN., Sept. 28, 1870.

Editors Constitution: Our train, consisting of six or eight cars and about 250 delegates, representing about twenty-five towns in Georgia, Alabama and South Carolina, reached here this afternoon about four o'clock.

We arrived at Chattanooga about four this morning. Made no stop there. At Fosterville we met a delegation of about fifty from this place, sent out to meet us. They extended us their hospitalities in good old Tennessee style. At Murfreesboro we stopped about an hour, and visited the Rutherford County Fair now being held. Saw much to interest us in the way of fine stock, agricultural implements and products, and also in the finer arts.

Upon our arrival at Nashville we found the whole city turned out as it were to welcome us. We repaired immediately to the Maxwell House, where a splendid banquet was awaiting us. Speeches were made by Colonel J. C. Burch. Dr. Sharpe and Colonel Moore, of this place, and replied to by Colonel Gaskill, Colonel Styles and others.

Everything has passed off in perfect gala style since we left Atlanta. Colonel Pope, of the Western and Atlantic Railroad, has done everything in his power to make the excursion a success, and has not failed. He will long be remembered with feelings of pleasure by all on this excursion. I have not time to write more, as we leave soon for Louisville. P.

University of Virginia—Series of School Books for the South.

Editors Constitution: At this critical period for Southern interests no subject is of deeper import to us than that of education; for a sound moral education for a people is the true basis of progress and prosperity.

We all feel this to be true in greater or less degree; and a very general interest is being aroused throughout the South on the subject of education for the masses.

This being granted, is it of little consequence, as some think, what kind of books are used in our schools and colleges? Will any sort of book answer the purpose of training and developing the minds of our youth, male and female?

Surely not, for the most corrupting principles are often taught in the lessons of a school reader—facts gravely perverted in school histories, and words and sentences offensive to good taste and good feeling, put into the language of children for daily recitation.

Besides, a vast majority of school books are crude, badly prepared, without systematic or scientific arrangement—made books, hastily compiled for the occasion.

The need of a regular progressive series of school books, plain and practical in arrangement, scientific in preparation, and progressive in development, and free from every thing sectional and sectarian, is generally felt.

The University of Virginia has prepared just such a series, from a primer up, in regular gradation, to the highest classical and mathematical course.

These books have been written by eminent Southern men—by Professors Venable, Holmes, Gildersleeve, and de Vere, of the University of Virginia; Chancellor Waddell, of the University of Mississippi; Satchleben and Le Conte, of South Carolina, and Maury, of "Physical Geology of the Sea" fame.

They are published by a joint stock company of eminent men and issued from the houses in New York and Baltimore.

The agent for this company, Rev. J. A. Harrold, of Baltimore, is now in this city to open the stock of the company for sale, and to furnish to the order of heads of schools, colleges, etc., the series of books. The capital stock of the company is $300-000, in shares of $5 each, so as to place it within the possibility of all interested in this movement for Southern education to become holders of a stock which must become a most profitable means for investment.

The agent will be pleased to confer with teachers, professors, and all others interested. Communications addressed to him at the book store of Messrs. Phillips & Crew, or P. O. box 426, Atlanta, will receive attention.

Specimen copies of books are on exhibition at the above store. Prices as low as any other school publications.

Senator Harris of the Twenty-Seventh District and the Relief Bill.

COVINGTON, September 29, 1870.

Editors Constitution: The bill for relief being the regular order, and the previous question called upon the passage of the bill before the repealing section was read, having been sustained, the point of order was raised that Senators interested under the bill could not vote.

Upon the calling of the yeas and nays, Mr. Candler objected to Mr. Harris' voting upon the ground that he was interested in the relief bill, there being suits pending against him. Mr. Harris denied that he was interested in relief, and yet, notwithstanding this statement made by the Senator from the 27th, in his place, he has, within the past two weeks, filed a sworn plea of pure relief in a suit now pending against him upon a note given in December last, in compromise at less than fifty cents on the dollar, of a debt created in the purchase of necessaries for himself and family. This is a part of record. The gentleman from the 27th, when occasion requires allusion to his record as a Representative, so-called, often deprecates the lack of public confidence. Can it be wondered at when his public acts are only faint illustrations of his private life? H.

Favre's Report of His Failure.

TOURS, September 27.—Jules Favre today made a special report to the government here of his mission to the Prussian headquarters in behalf of peace. He says a great many different solutions of the difficulty had been proposed and rejected, and he determined at last to make a direct move. Therefore, on September 10, he demanded of Bismarck a categorical reply as to whether he would enter upon negotiations. Bismarck's first answer was unfavorable, though he subsequently asked what guarantees the French could offer.

A foreign Minister, who was acting as an intermediary, desired Favre to see Bismarck and make his demands in person. Accordingly Favre saw Bismarck, expressed to him his love of France and liberty, and his determination to accept no conditions which would render peace only a menacing truce. Bismarck replied if he thought peace were possible, he would sign immediately, but the actual government was too precarious and likely to be overborne. France would not be any more apt to forget Sedan than she had been to forget Waterloo and Sadowa. She would soon attack Germany again.

Being pressed for conditions, Favre was explicit, but Bismarck asserted that the security of his country demanded the retention of the part of the territory Germany now occupied, and mentioned as in that condition the departments of Upper Rhine, Lower Rhine and Moselle with Metz, Chatteau Salines and Soissons.

To the objection of Favre, that the people of France would not agree to that, and that he could not act without their sanction, Bismarck replied that he felt confident of that before; but as the matter was uncertain, he wished to make it with all the advantages possible.

Favre then intimated that Europe might find the pretensions of Prussia exorbitant. He was certain that France never would accept them. She might perish as a nation, but she would not be dishonored. The country alone could decide upon the question of territorial cession, and Favre could not doubt what that decision is. On such terms France would not listen to any proposition for an armistice.

The second interview occurred at Feveires on the 19th. On this occasion Bismarck seemed to accept the idea of an armistice. Favre asked for fifteen days. The next day Bismarck handed Favre his conditions, adding that Germany must have the forts commanding Paris, and especially Fort Mont Valerien on the western border. Favre replied that it would be more simple to demand Paris at once. Bismarck said if these terms were not satisfactory, the French must seek other arrangements.

Favre proposed a meeting of a Constituent Assembly at Tours. Bismarck made a condition that the garrison of Strasbourg should be surrendered as prisoners of war. Upon Favre's indignantly refusing, Bismarck consulted the King, who insisted on the surrender of Strasbourg. Wearied with his useless efforts, Favre retired, expressing the conviction that France would fight to the last.

Favre concludes from the manner in which all his efforts for peace have been met by the Germans, that they are determined on conquest. He says the interviews were not altogether useless, as they have proved that notwithstanding Prussia declared that she only warred against Napoleon and his army she is really fighting the nation, which must rise en masse either to disavow universal government or resist the enemy to the last.

Editors Constitution: Allow me to say to my friends of the Democratic party of Fulton county that I find, upon examination, that under existing laws I am ineligible to the office of Tax Collector, and am, therefore, not a candidate for the office.

Respectfully, etc.,
L. P. THOMAS.

GEORGIA LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

FRIDAY, September 30, 1870.

Senate called to order by President Conley.

Prayer by Wesley Prettyman.

The bill to organize a district court was taken up as unfinished business.

The action of the Senate sustaining the call for the previous question was rescinded on motion of Mr. Holcombe.

Mr. Holcombe moved to reconsider the adoption of Mr. Wooten's amendment, which motion prevailed.

Messrs. Holcombe, Brock, Harris and Nunnally opposed the adoption of Wooten's amendment.

Messrs. Fain and Speer favored the adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Bruton moved to strike out the words "for Senators" after the words "general election," which motion prevailed.

Mr. Nunnally moved the indefinite postponement of the whole bill. Lost, yeas 12—nays 17.

The vote was then taken upon Mr. Holcombe's substitute for Mr. Wooten's amendment, by inserting the districts to be exempted from the operation of the bill. The substitute was adopted by yeas 17—nays 15.

The first section as amended reads as follows:

That there shall be organized in each Senatorial District in this State, except in districts Nos 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 15, 16, 23, 27, 28, 31, 32, 33, 34, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, which are exempted from the operations of this bill, a court to be styled "The District Court," etc.

Mr. Candler moved to amend the 5th section by adding the words "subject to continuances according to the rules of Superior Courts," which amendment was adopted.

The section as amended reads:

That every accusation in the District Court shall be in order for trial at the session at which it is preferred, subject to continuances according to the rules of the Superior Courts; but it shall be the duty of the Judge to allow reasonable time to both parties to summon witnesses, and to the defendant to procure counsel.

Mr. Candler moved to amend the 13th section by inserting the words, "to be agreed on by counsel or approved by court," which was adopted.

The section, as amended, reads:

Certioraries may be had under the sanction and order of the Judges of the Superior Courts of the circuit in the county in which the case is heard, in all cases, civil and criminal, heard at the monthly sessions, upon the petition in writing to said Judge of the party complaining of error in ten days after the trial, with notice to the opposite party or his attorney; in criminal cases, to the District Attorney, which petition shall state the grounds of complaint and give a brief of the material evidence, to be agreed upon by counsel or approved by the court, which writ of certiorari being delivered to the district Judge, it shall be his duty to send up to said Judge of the Superior Court, properly certified, a copy of the proceedings of the district Court in the case, with a statement of the material evidence; and the Judge of the Superior Court shall hear and finally determine the same at chambers or the session of the Superior Court, as may by him seem proper. Upon hearing the return to the writ of certiorari in criminal cases, the Judge of the Superior Court may either grant a new trial or pass such judgment or sentence as, in view of the whole case, is consistent with justice. Upon notice to the district Judge of the application by a defendant in a criminal case for a writ of certiorari, the sentence shall be suspended for ten days, and if the writ be issued, then until the same is decided.

The bill as amended was passed.

Mr. Harris moved to take up the message from the House and concur in amendment to the Senate or Akerman no-election bill. Message taken up and amendment concurred in.

Bills on third reading:

Declaratory of act relative to renewals. Tabled for the present.

To incorporate the Planters Loan and Savings Bank of Augusta. Passed.

To incorporate the Griffin Banking Company. Passed.

To incorporate the Midway Free Common School. Indefinitely postponed on account of unconstitutionality.

To incorporate the People's Bank of Macon. Passed.

Mr. Harris moved that when the Senate adjourn to-day, it adjourn until Monday.

Mr. Burns opposed the motion, stating that if Mr. Harris wanted to go home, he could do so, as the Senate could do very well without him.

Motion lost.

The hour of one having arrived, House bills were read the first and second time.

Senate then adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

FRIDAY, September 30, 1870.

The House was called to order at 9 o'clock by the Speaker.

Prayer by the Rev. Dr. Brantly.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

Mr. Scott having given notice on yesterday, moved to reconsider the resolution adopted yesterday, repealing the rule of the House requiring a three-fourths vote to suspend the rules, and that any important matter may be taken up by a majority. Mr. Scott briefly advocated his motion.

Mr. O'Neal, of Lowndes, opposed the motion, insisting that the three-fourths rule was a bad one, having a tendency to protract unduly the sessions of the General Assembly. Mr. O'Neal's remarks elicited applause from the galleries.

Mr. Shumate, of Whitfield, urged reconsideration on the ground that two rules of the House had been violated in the passage of the resolution on yesterday.

Mr. Tweedy claimed that the House having, by a majority vote, adopted the three-fourths rule, could by a like vote rescind it.

Mr. Tweedy concluded by calling the previous question, which was sustained and put; and the House refused to reconsider by the following vote: yeas 60; nays 68.

The Speaker announced that the next business in order was the motion of Mr. Caldwell, of Troup, to reconsider so much of the journal of yesterday as relates to the passage of the bill known as the election bill.

Mr. Caldwell, in advocacy of his motion, attacked the bill in question as unconstitutional, because it prohibited the challenging of voters, which the constitution (Article 2, Section 2) expressly recognizes as the right of any elector. The bill was further objectionable on the ground that, owing to the want of information on the part of the managers, idiots, persons under age, and felons, might vote.

The gentleman's time having expired, and the House having refused to extend it,

Mr. O'Neal obtained the floor, and opposed the motion, defending the bill with great earnestness. He claimed that whatever objections might be urged against the bill, it certainly operated fairly towards either party.

Mr. Shumate, of Whitfield, insisted the bill was unconstitutional, because it authorized arrest without warrant. He hoped the motion would prevail in order that several amendments might be made to the bill.

Mr. Harper, of Terrell, followed, claiming that the bill encouraged fraud, there being no way to prevent the same person from voting any number of times under different names.

Turner, of Bibb, insisted on the fairness of the bill, calling attention to the provision that the Ordinary of each county had the appointing of two out of the five managers.

A message was received from the Senate, announcing the passage of the following bills:

An act to amend the several acts incorporating the city of Macon.

An act to incorporate the Brunswick Bank and Trust Company.

Also, the House resolution authorizing the Treasurer to pay the widow of P. H. Chambers, deceased member of the House.

Mr. Anderson, of Cobb, denounced the bill as dangerous, inasmuch as it might be used in future to carry measures that would subvert the will of the people and the government of the State.

He appealed to the other side to yield that just, fair, and reasonable amendments might be made.

Mr. Tweedy replied to the arguments of the gentlemen from Terrell and Whitfield, and called the previous question.

The call was sustained, the main question was put and the yeas and nays being demanded the vote was as follows: yeas 60; nays 67, so the House refused to reconsider.

Mr. Gullatt explained that he did not vote because he had paired off with Mr. Carson, who was absent.

Mr. Goodwin, of Cass, also explained that he did not vote for a similar reason.

A motion to adjourn was voted down, and the House proceeded with bills on third reading.

The following bills were read and acted on:

A Bill to provide for levying a tax on the property of the Central Railroad and Banking Company, in the county of Bibb, for county purposes. Lost.

A bill to change the line between the counties of Clinch and Coffee. The bill was passed, with an amendment changing the lines between the counties of Webster and Terrell.

A message was received from the Senate asking the appointment of a committee of five to take into consideration, in connection with a committee of three appointed by the Senate, a resolution authorizing the Treasurer to pay the legal representatives of Joseph Adkins, deceased, late Senator from the Nineteenth District, the amount of per diem and mileage to which he would have been entitled had he remained in life till the close of the present session. Agreed to.

Pending the consideration of bills on third reading, the House took up the bill for the relief of Ada Taylor, of the county of Coffee, which,

On motion of Mr. O'Neal, of Lowndes was indefinitely postponed.

Bill to incorporate the town of Homerville, in the county of Clinch, was passed.

Bill to alter paragraph 675 of Irwin's Revised Code.

The object of the bill was to exempt from road duty persons laboring on railroads.

After considerable discussion the bill was indefinitely postponed.

Bill to change the lines between the counties of Lowndes and Berrien. Passed.

The following committee was appointed under the Senate resolution in regard to the pay of Joseph Adkins, deceased: Messrs. Tweedy, Cloud, Ware, Colby and Floyd.

A bill to exempt from jury duty the members of the two Fire Companies of the city of Rome. After some discussion the bill passed.

On motion of Mr. Joiner, Hon. Peter Strozier, of Dougherty, was tendered a seat on the floor of the House.

The following is the vote on Mr. Caldwell's motion to reconsider the passage of the election bill.

Yeas: Messrs. Armstrong, Anderson, Butts, Brewster, Barnum, Ballanger, Clark, Caldwell, Cloud, Claghorn, Cobb, Duncan, Erwin, Felder, Ford, Fryer, Fincannon, Gober, Gray, Higdon Hunter, Hamilton, Harkness, Hook, Harris of Murray, Harper of Sumter, Harper of Terrell, Harrison of Franklin, Hall of Bullock, Hall of Glynn, Kytle, Matthews, McArthur, Nash, Nesbitt of Dade, Price, Paulk, Phillips, Pepper, Perkins of Cherokee, Rainey, Rosser, Rawles, Rumph, Saulter, Sisson, Shumate, Shackleford, Scott, Sorrells, Smith of Coffee, Smith of Telfair, Smith of Ware, Tumlin, Turnipseed, Walthall, Wilcox, Ware, Welchell, Warren of Quitman—60.

Nays—Atkins, Allen of Jasper, Allen of Hart, Bell, Bethune, Belcher, Beard, Buchan, Barnes, Bradford, Campbell, Clower, Costen, Colby, Cunningham, Davis, Ellis, Fitzpatrick, Franks, Floyd, Golden, Gardner, Guilford, Hillyer, Holcombe, Houston, Harden, Hughes, Hutchins, Hooks, Harris of Glasscock, Harrison of Hancock, Hall of Meriwether, Joiner, Jackson, Johnson of Spalding, Johnson of Forsyth, Lee, Lane, Linder, Lindsey, Madden, Madison, Maxwell, Moore, McCormick, Nesbitt of Gordon, O'Neal of Lowndes, O'Neal of Baldwin, Porter, Perkins of Dawson, Reid, Rogers, Richardson, Sewell, Strickland, Simms, Stone, Smith of Muscogee, Tweedy, Turner, Watkins, Warren of Burke, Williams of Harris, Williams of Haralson, Zellars—67.

On motion, the House adjourned until 4 o'clock this evening.

JUBILEE JIM'S WAY.

A Sunday Night's Revel at the Grand Opera House.

NEW YORK, September 25.—There is a sound of revelry to-night (Sunday.) The Prince of Erie gives a grand private rehearsal of the new opera bouffe, "Le Petitte Faust," and the Grand Opera House is a blaze of lights and mirth and music. Prominent merchants, bankers, brokers, lawyers, and one independent divine, with their wives and daughters, are present. Murray Hill and Washington Heights shake hands in the corridors, and bow distantly in the galleries.

The belles of Newport, Long Branch and Saratoga, heaving off their faded summer finery, shine resplendent in the gorgeous hues of the winter season. But, brighter than all, like a star of the thirtieth magnitude, shines that diamond in the shirt front of Jim Jubilee, Jr., as he moves among his guests. It is "a spread, a spree and a shindy," says alliterative James, "and you'll find the champagne in the parlors; come, drink a bowl." Very many pious persons are shocked at the conduct of the wicked James.

MCMAHON'S WOUNDS.—McMahon is very badly but not mortally wounded, and a prisoner. He is one of those who would not give their parole not to serve against Prussia during the present war. His wife, the Duchess of Magenta, arrived here two days ago, bringing with her a surgeon from Paris and a well known Sister of Charity to help to nurse her husband. She was at the Marshal's estate, near Nismes, and would have come to her husband in twenty-four hours, but the Prussians would not allow her to pass their lines, and so she had to go round by the centre and west of France, reach Paris, then go by the Northern Railway to Russia, and to come through Bouillon to Sedan, over the Belgian frontier.

From all I hear McMahon would be likely to recover quickly from his wound were it not that he frets and fumes at the past and worries himself much about the future. He blames the Emperor very much indeed for having surrendered this place, and declares that General de Wimpffen ought to have tried to cut his way through the enemy, even if out of 80,000 men he had lost 40,000 in attempting to do so.

☞ The following touching lines are from the last chapter of unfinished "Edwin Drood:"

"A brilliant morning shines on the old city. Its antiquities and ruins are surpassingly beautiful, with the lusty ivy gleaming in the sun, and the rich trees waving in the balmy air. Changes of glorious light from moving boughs, songs of birds, scents from gardens and fields—or rather from the one great garden of the whole cultivated island in its yielding time—penetrate into the cathedral, subdue its earthly odor, and preach the Resurrection and the Life. The cold stone tombs of centuries ago grow warm; and flecks of brightness dart into the sternest marble corners of the building, fluttering there like wings. 'Unregainable and far away.'"

☞ A citizen, who deserves well of his country, had a large family to which additions were constantly making. One day one of his little boys was thus interrogated: "John, how many brothers and sisters have you got?" "I don't know," answered the boy; "I hain't been home since this morning!"

☞ It is reported that Marshal McMahon solaces his sick hours by reading the obituaries of himself which appeared at the time of his reported death.

THE WORLD'S WONDER.

DR. ABBETT'S ANTI-DYSPEPTIC

LIVER MEDICINE

A SAFE and certain cure for all kinds of Liver Complaints, and all diseases and indispositions that originate from a diseased state or inactivity of the Liver, such as

Chronic and Acute Inflammations of the Liver,
Dyspepsia, Sick Headache,
Sourness of the Stomach,
Loss of Appetite,
Lowliness of Spirits, Colic,
Costiveness, Fever, Ague,
Billious Fever, Dropsy and Jaundice.

These Medicines are purely Vegetable, and perfectly harmless; but their efficacy is too permanently established in all the Southern and Western States to require any further recommendations. The wise will not fail to give them a fair trial—this is all that is asked.

LAGRANGE, GA., DEC. 3, 1869.

MESSRS. CRAWFORD & WALKER, West Point, Ga. Gentlemen: Having witnessed almost daily, for the last fifteen years, the great efficacy of the preparation you are now putting up, known as "Abbett's Medicine," it affords me pleasure to state that I know of no combinations or preparation equal to it in the treatment of Liver Diseases of whatever character, and would cordially recommend it to all who are suffering from derangement of the Liver, and especially the Dyspeptic.

I am, very respectfully,
T. S. BRADFIELD, Druggist.

WEST POINT, GA., OCT. 15, 1869.

MESSRS. CRAWFORD & WALKER: Gentlemen—I can honestly and confidently recommend L. B. Abbett's Liver or Dyspeptic Medicine, as prepared by you, to the favorable notice of the suffering public. Having used this Medicine myself in my family for twenty years, I can highly recommend it for removing pain or flatulency from the stomach, caused by indigestion. It also has a happy effect in removing constipation of the bowels. I believe it to be the best universal remedy the world has yet discovered for the above named diseases. With my best wishes to you in introducing this valuable Medicine to the public, I remain,

Yours, truly, A. K. KENDRICK.

UNIVERSAL LIFE INS. CO.
—NEW YORK—

The Original Joint-Stock Life Ins. Co. of the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the Insurance of first class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the Mutual, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum insured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium with a promised dividend, which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the UNIVERSAL, the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,454—difference, immediately secured, in favor of the UNIVERSAL, $3,277.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one third per cent. greater, and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty-three and one-third per cent. payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent. payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan the full value in insurance of the premium paid, is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

THE PREMIUMS

charged by the Universal are as low as the actual experience of insured life in this country will justify, and on the ordinary Life and Ten-Year Non-forfeiture policies are nearly one-third lower than those charged by the majority of Mutual Companies.

Special attention is asked to our "Return Premium Plan," by which the amount of the policy is secured simply by the temporary deposit of the annual premiums, which are returned in full, together with the amount assured, to the holder of the policy when it shall become a claim upon the Company. Also to the

"REDUCTION OF PREMIUM PLAN,"

by which a reduction of one-third is made in the premium after the first annual payment, being, in fact, equivalent to a dividend of 50% per cent. A clause is inserted in the policies issued by the "Universal," in which these results are distinctly specified and guaranteed.

Full General Agents Commissions paid to good, live solicitors. Local Agents wanted in every town and county. Address,

General Agent.

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE CITY.
THE LARGEST CITY, COUNTY AND STATE CIRCULATION.
DEFIES REFUTATION.
BY W. A. HEMPHILL & CO.
I. W. AVERY, Editor.

Morning Edition.

Atlanta, Ga., October 1, 1870.

FOR CONGRESS,
(SEVENTH DISTRICT,)
Gen. P. M. B. Young,
OF BARTOW.

☞ It is not often that we have it in our power to pay a compliment to Radicals. But the officers of the State Road have shown an admirable tact and skill in advertising our State Fair, and bringing it to the notice of every part of the Union.

Be it Forever Remembered.

In the passage of the Election Bill, the Radical party of Georgia, through its members of the Legislature, has deliberately and knowingly set aside the constitution of Georgia and the laws of Congress.

☞ The New York Herald tries to dispose of Mr. Stephens' reply to Mr. Akerman with the one contemptuous designation of "those same old Southern abstractions."

We will yet see the Herald and those of its ilk appealing lustily for protection from the devilties of an unrestrained centralism to those very "abstractions" they so sneeringly deride.

The LaGrange Reporter.

Mr. Willingham, of the LaGrange Reporter, is in the city in the interest of his fine paper. Apart from the ability and integrity that mark this paper, it is one of the best supported Weeklies in the State, and circulates in one of the richest and most populous sections of the State. We advise our merchants to advertise in it.

Ex-Judge Grier Dead.

Judge Robert C. Grier, lately of the Supreme Court of the United States is dead. He was a Pennsylvanian, the son of a farmer, and born in 1794. He was a school teacher, lawyer and State Judge. He was appointed on the Supreme Bench by President Polk in 1848. Judge Grier was an able jurist. His famous decisions were in the Passmere Williamson and Dred Scott cases.

☞ The list of defalcating Collectors, all of whom are, of course, of the Republican faith, is frightful, and the worst feature of all this is that the people seem not to fully appreciate its enormity. In 1840, says an exchange, the Democratic party lost its power because one man, Simon Swartout, was a defaulter in the sum of $40,000. Now we are informed officially, by Executive Document No. 267, that there are 340 defaulters, ten of whom together are for six million dollars. Let the people read and reflect.

Iowa Needs Reconstruction.

What say our reconstructing masters to the case of Iowa? Some little judgments have been issued from the United States Circuit Court to collect certain sums required to pay bonds issued in aid of railroads.

The people refuse to pay, and the State Courts back the repudiators up. This is a sort of a little broth of a rebellion, that would raise much of a Radical howl if it should occur in Georgia.

Peace and Money.

The English financial journals are much exercised over the apprehension that a sudden establishment of peace will start money upwards. It would take money to France and Prussia, and make the English market tight.

Verily, this is a humanitarian view of the subject. Bloodshed must continue for the benefit of Johnny Bull's finances. That is good. Yankee could'nt beat that. So rip ahead mit your old war for the sake of Bull's dollars.

A Hit.

The Herald thus cleverly hits that Pharisee, Wendell Phillips:

"A BEAM IN HIS EYE.—Wendell Phillips sees very clearly the mote in Bismarck's eye. That mote is want of magnanimity. It is the utter want of a generous sentiment toward a fallen foe. It is the resolution to pursue relentlessly a bitter quarrel. For this Wendell scourges the German; but suppose the German should refer to the beam in Wendell's eye, and ask when he felt or showed any magnanimity toward the fallen foe of the Southern States in our great civil war. National magnanimity is pretty preaching, but alas! for the practice—on either side of the sea."

The Election Bill.

Judge McCay, of the Supreme Bench of Georgia, it is charged, drew it.

Colonel A. T. Akerman, the Attorney General of the United States, sanctioned it.

This bill, thus originated and endorsed, is in direct conflict with the constitution of Georgia.

Thus have two high law officers been accessory to a violation of the constitution.

This burden is heavy. It makes a crime against the State, and its authors are already feeling the stigma.

We are ready to go into the election before a people thus outraged by this bill. Let us not lose hope. The measure carries a sting for its authors.

A Confederate Orphan Asylum.

A few days back we spoke of Tennessee's noble charity, her Confederate Orphan Asylum, and suggested that our noble ladies, who have taken charge of the Confederate dead, start a similar enterprise in Georgia.

In another column will be found a communication from our public-spirited young fellow-citizen, Colonel E. Y. Clarke, offering to give thirty acres of land in the suburbs of Atlanta, or one thousand dollars in cash, payable when twenty thousand dollars are raised for the purpose.

This is a commendable liberality in Colonel Clarke, and a fine start for this meritorious project. Will not our ladies now take hold of it? We need it. Hundreds of orphans of our gallant Confederate heroes are needing homes. The spirit that reverences and preserves the remains of dead heroes can find a fitting co-work in cherishing the living representatives of these poor heroes.

Let us have an asylum. Who will move next?

Chief Justice Brown and the Election Bill.

We are authorized by Chief Justice Brown to say that he disapproves the Election bill as it passed the House yesterday. He believes some of its provisions to be in palpable violation of the constitution of this State, and he condemns and denounces it. We know that the Chief Justice used his influence actively to try to have the bill so amended as to obviate the constitutional difficulties, and provide for a fair election. His course in favor of fair play in the matter of the approaching election has brought down upon him the censure of the extreme Radical leaders. But, as usual, he has the nerve to act independently upon his own judgment, and he has done so in this case openly and boldly, refusing to be bound by party shackles or controlled by party dictation.

Federal Tax Knocked Up.

Judge Strong, of one of the Federal Courts in Pennsylvania, one of Grant's new Supreme Court Judges, has decided in a case recently, that the tax is not valid on dividends of a railroad company, due and collectable after January 1, 1870.

This decision affects the validity of all the income taxes save the personal income.

The case has gone to the Supreme Court, and if Judge Strong is sustained, all taxes will have to be refunded that have been collected since January on the dividends of railroads, banks, trust companies, savings institutions, insurance companies, canal and turn-pike companies, and on salaries of government officials.

Computation made at the Internal Revenue Bureau shows the amount open to reclamation, if Judge Strong be sustained, to be about six millions of dollars.

The Presiding Officers of the Legislature.

The historian, in writing this portion of Georgia's history, will find no more revolting episode than that connected with the parliamentary administration of the presiding officers of the present Legislature.

Men elevated to conspicuous place, however corrupt, ordinarily attempt to seem fair and honest.

But it has been left for this legislative Assembly of Georgia to show two presiding officers, men formerly of standing and means—one a native-born Georgian, and one a Northerner—who, flinging off every honest shackle, have prostituted their positions with a brazen and reckless effrontery to partizan schemes. The spectacle is a sad one.

Without an excuse, in violation of law and precedent, in hourly conflict with past rulings, in humble obedience to the dictates of partizan leaders, inconsistently reversing themselves times without number, and in open, wanton, unblushing recreancy to their duty and their oaths, these functionaries have acted so as to deserve the censure of all honest men of every party.

We hold them up as unfaithful public servants, unworthy of respect, and fit subjects for scorn.

A New Use for Employees of the State Road.

When a Radical meeting was held here a few days ago, we are informed that the State road shops were empty the greater part of the day. The employees were working for the State at the Radical meeting. We have not heard that the wages of any were docked during this absence. The same pay was allowed for attending to Bullock's and Blodgett's politics, as for doing the legitimate work of the State Road.

Yesterday, as we are informed, Superintendent Blodgett detailed his State shop hands on the same political duty. They were sent to the galleries of the House of Representatives during the pendancy of the reconsideration of the infamous election bill, and many, it is said, took no pains to conceal their fire-arms.

If this is true, it is a fitting accessory to this wicked measure. That the Governor of Georgia, and the man who claims to be the legally elected Senator from the State to the National Assembly should thus pack the lobbies of the Georgia Legislature to intimidate members into the passage of a bill that overrides the constitution of the State, sets at naught the rights of the people, and, by a cool scheme of unexampled villainy, gives these bold conspirators the political control of a great commonwealth, is one of those desperate acts that form the record of Southern Radicalism, and that will damn to everlasting execration the vile men who now rule the land to its injury.

But let our people possess their souls in patience. Under the operation of the election bill, if we mistake not, we shall have ample opportunity to exercise patience to the full.

Pro Bono Publico.

I have the appointment of six beneficiaries to the Washington Medical University of Maryland. All applications must be accompanied by the best certificates of high moral character, fair ability and aptitude to study. The appointments will be made within the next ten days. Those best recommended will receive the appointments. These appointments are open to the State at large. P. M. B. YOUNG.

A Confederate Orphan Asylum.

Editors Constitution: In a recent issue, the attention of your readers was called to that noble charity, the Confederate Orphans' Asylum, of Tennessee. A copy of the Nashville Banner, since obtained, gives a full account of the institution and its successful operation, supporting and educating a very large number of Confederate orphans.

The destitute always have their claim upon us, but the Confederate orphan has a claim superior to all others. It is our duty, made sweet by the promptings of gratitude, to gather together the remains of our dead, and to keep their graves green and their memories fresh. But how much more important and obligatory is the duty of extending needed assistance to their widows and orphans. Georgia ought by all means to have an asylum for the Confederate orphan.

Philanthropy accomplishes by far the greatest amount of good, and charity is most wisely dispensed, through systematic channels and organized instrumentalities. It is in the benevolent associations of the land, in their multitudinous forms, that human woe is most largely and successfully alleviated and the greatest results of good attained. An institution similar to that in Tennessee not only greatly relieves human suffering, but also wields a great influence in behalf of morality and religion through the education and training of the young under its management.

In response to your call for some movement toward the establishment of such an institution in Georgia, I propose to furnish thirty (30) acres of land just outside of the city for the grounds, so soon as twenty thousand dollars are subscribed for the erection of the asylum, school-house, for stocking of the farm, etc. Or I will give one thousand dollars, payable when twenty thousand are subscribed, subscriptions receivable from all parts of the State or country. Will not some of our noble ladies take the matter in hand?

Respectfully, E. Y. CLARKE.
Atlanta, September 30, 1870.

Dr. F. G. Godbee, of Burke county, was stabbed and killed on Tuesday night, by a drunken negro named Warren Little. He stabbed Dr. Godbee in thirteen different places. Will the Sheriff of Burke inform the Governor of the murder, and let a reward be offered for the murderer.

Excursion tickets furnished from New York for $36 50 round trip, and from Baltimore for half the usual rates.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, September 30.—Three Russians, very skillful counterfeiters, were arrested to-day while printing fifty cent scrip. Many thousands of dollars of bogus scrip were captured.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, September 30.—At Gordonsville to-day the accounts that come in from the flood are more and more disastrous.

The Orange and Alexandria Railroad bridge over Rock Fish River is reported swept away. The bridges over the Revana and Moore's Creek, on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, is also gone.

Burly & Weil's two mills are both floating down the Revana, with four hundred barrels of flour floating around them.

A dwelling-house, completely furnished, went by this afternoon.

The Revana is filled with the debris of furniture, barns, agricultural implements, crops, etc.

All the crops in the low grounds are a total loss.

The telegraph lines to Lynchburg and the west are badly damaged.

Vice President Wickham, of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, is between Greenwood and Waynesboro, with two trains, unable to recede or advance.

Superintendent Van Degrift, of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, went to the break at Moore's Creek, with a train, this evening.

Water here has risen ten feet since noon. This is water from the Revana. That from Lynchburg will strike here about midnight. The water at Lynchburg is twenty-five feet higher than ever known before.

The flood reached here at 12:30 in a wave five feet high, and in twenty minutes the river rose six feet. There is great excitement in the lower part of the city, removing goods from places accessible to the water. The Orange Hotel and the Orange and Alexandria Railroad bridges at Lynchburg were swept away this morning.

A telegram from Gordonsville says the Revana river is flooding all the surrounding country. Houses, barrels of flour and cattle have been washing down the stream all the morning.

FRANCE.

TOURS, September 30.—A great number of the Emperor's private documents have been made public. Many noted persons of the old regime are implicated in the scandals.

M. Derinne, President of Cœur de Cassution, has been dismissed for complicity in the Emperor and Magurite Belanger affair.

The Jecker correspondence regarding Mexico, has been unearthed, implicating Duc de Moray and others high in the Emperor's confidence. Also, a letter from the Emperor from Persegney to Napoleon, proving the existence of a black tribunal.

A letter from the Queen of Holland, after the battle of Sedan, warning the Emperor against the events now happening.

Another letter, still more scandalous, is promised.

Later Paris dispatches state that Jules Simon has stopped pensions to those dramatic writers who needed no assistance.

Other retrenchments will be made by the Ministry. It is contemplated that the amount of fifty millions will be saved.

CHERBOURG, September 30.—The greater part of the French fleet have returned. Squadrons were left in the North Sea and English Channel to protect the French coast.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, September 30.—The Prussians have evacuated Ramboullet, seventeen miles southwest of Versailles.

Confidence returning in Paris.

It is vaguely asserted that some positions occupied by the Prussians have been recovered by the French.

The Prussians are continually coming nearer, and are throwing up out-works at Bazneux, and on the Meudan.

Terraced works will face the works at Vanoise and Issy on the south of Paris.

The Prussians have occupied Daurdan, 18 miles southwest of Versailles.

It is reported that they have also reached Neverval and Gregneville in the department of the Seine.

The Times, in its money article, says the further reduction of the bank rate is expected.

The cabinet was in session to-day in regard to foreign affairs. The journals say the result will dissatisfy belligerents and satisfy nobody.

LIVERPOOL, September 30.—The members of the Liverpool Cotton Brokers Association held a meeting yesterday and unanimously resolved that henceforth any member failing to pay 20 shillings to the pound shall be expelled.

RUSSIA.

ST. PETERSBURG, September 30.—The Official Journal denies that Russia purchased a new iron clad from the United States, and the concentration of troops on the Turkish frontier. Russia is for peace and justice.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.
FRANCE.

TOURS, September 30.—The report is reiterated that General Beauregard, late of Confederate army, is in the French service. It is stated that he first accepted a Colonel's commission, but that he has since been appointed a General, and is at present organizing troops in the South of France.

It is reported that the Foreign Ambassadors met to-day in consequence of the receipt of important news from Thiers.

The Government is considering the question of ordering an election for a Constitutional Assembly in October.

It is understood that the majority of Ministers are in favor of a plan of arrangements which has been made which, if successfully carried out, will give us news from Paris every day.

Lyons is now quiet, the agitation having partially subsided. The government here has taken effectual means to prevent a renewal of the disturbance in that city.

The army of the Loire is now organizing, and will be commanded by General Mettleroag.

General Ballors, who escaped from Strasbourg in disguise, has reached Lyons.

Additional engagements have taken place around Paris since last reports, in which the French are reported to have been successful.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, September 30.—In the Captain disaster investigation a letter was read showing that Captain Cales Beeny was dissatisfied because his views were modified in building.

There was an explosion of fire damp in the colliery near Tenby, killing one man and injuring several others.

The successive defeats of the yacht Cambria in American waters is a source of no little mortification to yachtmen here.

It is said the French repulsed the Prussians at Mantes.

According to a statement in the Sevenoire, Marshal Lebouefie, Napoleon's late Chief of Staff, was in the battles around Metz, and displayed the most reckless valor. He admits that France was unprepared for the war, and confesses he did not dare tell the Emperor, before the war commenced, what condition the army was in.

PRUSSIA.

COLOGNE, September 30.—The Gazette to-day publishes the views of several correspondents on the question of the terms of peace. A writer, while admitting that the prevailing tongue in Alsace is German, denies the editor's statement that the same is true of Lorraine.

One who passed the greater part of his life in that province, says that the German element is hardly perceptible, and the language is only spoken in Belt, adjoining the frontier.

BERLIN, September 30.—A dispatch from Ferrieres, Italy, states that on Thursday the King reconnoitered the French lines from St. Dennis to Romdenesville.

Kehl is crowded with refugees from Strasbourg, awaiting permission to return to the city.

ITALY.

ROME, September 30.—The victorious Italians now here begin to show strong sympathy for the French Republicans.

OBITUARY.

DOWELL—Departed this life on the 18th instant, near Midway, Georgia, J. ROBERT W. DOWELL, in the 31st year of his age. He was a native of Savannah, Ga. The deceased retired in usual health, and ere morning dawned was attacked with apoplexy. He was thus suddenly summoned by the God whom he devotedly loved and obeyed "to realms of everlasting bliss."

Long a consistent and enthusiastic member of the Baptist Church, religion had enlarged and made even more beautiful those many noble traits which were so characteristic of him. Truthful, generous and untiring in his friendship, he had endeared himself to all who had the happiness to know him in the institution with which he had been long connected, and the love of his own noble christian heart, extended to all the officers and others of that institution. If there was one whom he loved more than another, it was the philanthropic Superintendent, Dr. Thomas F. Green, who had extended to him, through a long series of years, that generous patience, forbearance and fatherly kindness so peculiar to him in all his dealings with the unfortunate. Although afar from home and kindred, his remains were laid away with all the honor and respect that his own brethren would have bestowed upon them. All that is earthly of our friend reposes in the Milledgeville Cemetery, while the spiritual lives among the "just made perfect." C.

THE AMERICAN

NEEDLE COTTON GIN,

WITH THE

EAGLE COTTON PRESS

HAS NO EQUAL.

As General Agent for the State of Georgia for the above, I beg to call the attention of farmers to them.

THE NEEDLE COTTON GIN

Was placed before the public last season as an original and entirely new machine. It had, as all new machines have, some defects, the chief one being in the needles lacking strength. This weakness is entirely removed, and I offer to the public for the present season, in the Needle Gin, one that combines with its superiority in all other respects, durability.
Gins sold last season will be supplied with entire outfit of the improved needles, free of cost.

THE EAGLE PRESS

Is a chain power press, more forcible than any power ever invented for packing cotton.

Old Times.

There's a beautiful song on the slumberous air
That drifts through the valley of dreams;
It comes from a clime where the roses were,
And a tuneful heart, and bright brown hair
That waved in the morning beams.

Soft eyes of azure and eyes of brown,
And snow-white foreheads are there;
A glimmering cross, a glittering crown,
A thorny bed and a couch of down,
Lost hope and leaflets of prayer.

A breath of spring in the breezy woods,
Sweet wails from the quivery pines,
Blue violet eyes beneath green hoods,
A bubble of brooklets, a scent of buds,
Bird warblers and clambering vines.

A rosy wreath and a dimpled hand,
A ring and a slighted vow—
Three golden links of a broken band,
A tiny track on the snow-white sand,
A tear and a sinless brow.

There's a tincture of grief in the beautiful song
That sobs on the slumberous air,
And loneliness, felt in the festive throng,
Sinks down on the soul as it trembles along
From a clime where the roses were.

We heard it first at the dawn of day,
And it mingles with matin chimes;
But years have distanced the beautiful lay,
And its melody floweth from the far away,
And we call it now Old Times.

CANCER! CANCER!

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK,

Of Madison, Georgia.

Makes a specialty of treating all persons afflicted with

CANCERS, SCROFULA, Indolent, Ulcers, etc., etc.

HE has successfully treated CANCERS for the last TWENTY YEARS, without the use of the knife or any mercurial agent. He begs to refer those afflicted to the following certificates of persons who have been cured by his treatment. They speak for themselves. The question will be asked who is Dr. Hitchcock? To all such I will answer that I was born and raised in Georgia. For all of which I feel proud. I am permanently located in Madison, Georgia.

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK: It gives me pleasure to give my testimony in regard to the wonderful effects produced by your Vegetable Cancer Plaster. About five years ago I became afflicted with Cancer, just above my right breast. From that time to August 1st, 1869, I had as many as ten or twelve Physicians to examine and prescribe for it, but all proved of no avail. I called on you about the first of August, 1869, and put myself under your treatment. I am happy to say that your Plaster removed the Cancer, and I am now entirely well. I cheerfully give this certificate, not for the purpose of applauding you, though I feel under lasting obligations to you for the cure, I do it for the benefit of all such as may be afflicted with this terrible malady.

FRANCIS A. CALLOWAY.
Rutledge, Ga., June 1, 1870.
Tested by Dr. J. F. JACKSON.
Dr. J. J. MONTGOMERY.

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK: I do hereby certify that I have had a Cancer on my angle of my jaw for fifteen years, and have applied to a number of physicians for treatment, but without success. The application of your celebrated Plaster removed the Cancer in eight days from the time of application. It has now been nearly two years since I was cured. I cheerfully give this for the benefit of the afflicted.

T. P. PEACOCK.
Madison, Ga., June 1, 1870.

I do certify that I have been troubled with a Cancer on my cheek, near my under eye-lid for two years past. I applied to Dr. W. L. HITCHCOCK, who applied his celebrated Cancer Plaster, and was agreeably surprised to see the Cancer come out whole, the eighth day from application; I am now well, and my face entirely healed up. I advise all persons afflicted with Cancer to give him a trial.

ROBERT SHIELDS.
Madison, August 2, 1869.

I have been suffering with a Cancer of the large kind, on the back of my neck, ca led rose cancer, for the past three years. I applied to Dr. W. L. HITCHCOCK, of Madison, who put a plaster on the Cancer, and, in eight days, it come out entirely. I am now well, and have been since the Cancer came out, which was last fall.

M. W. COFER.
Rutledge, Ga., September, 1868.

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK—Dear Sir: I am pleased to state that your Plaster has entirely cured the Cancer on my nose, which has give me so much trouble. I shall ever feel grateful to you for the success of your remedy.

Mrs. LORINA STRATTON.
Madison, Ga., May, 1870.

Dr. W. L. HITCHCOCK: I am pleased to certify that I have had a large Cancer on my right arm for twenty years, and have seen and advised with numbers of Physicians, who advised me to let it alone, as they considered the Cancer too far advanced to be subdued by remedies. I heard of you and made application for treatment, as a last resort, and to my great satisfaction your Plaster has taken out the Cancer, in eight days, by the roots, and the sore is now rapidly healing, and I entertain strong hopes of a speedy recovery.

J. F. BURNS.
Edgefield Court House, S. C.

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK—Dear Sir: I do hereby certify that I have been afflicted sorely with Cancer for fifteen years, and have tried many Physicians, and spent a great deal of money—all to no purpose, until I called on you, in Madison, last winter. The application of your Plaster has acted like a charm. I have the Cancer now in my possession, and the sores are all healed up, except one small place, which is nearly healed. I beg to refer all persons afflicted to call on Dr. Hitchcock, at Madison, Georgia.

T. B. REESE.
Edgefield C. H, S. C., or Hamburg, South Carolina, May, 1870.

Dr. W. L. HITCHCOCK—Dear Sir:—I am happy to certify that your remedies have cured the Cancer on my face and nose, that had given me so much pain for twelve years. It appears as sound as if I never had a Cancer.

MRS. E. B. STANTON.
Newton County, Ga., April 29, 1870—Postoffice at Social Circle, Georgia.

It affords me pleasure to state that I have witnessed a number of remarkable cures of Cancer, by the application of Dr. W. L. Hitchcock's Cancer Plaster.

J. F. PATTERSON,
September, 1870. Madison, Ga.

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK'S LIVER MEDICINE.

I would also state that, in addition to my curing Cancers, I am in regular practice of medicine, and make a specialty of treating chronic diseases, especially those peculiar to females, to which, from a long experience and extensive practice, I guarantee perfect satisfaction. I also keep a full assortment of my Family Medicines on hand, of my own manufacturing, but I call your special attention to my celebrated COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT OF STILLINGIA AND INDIAN HEMP, OR ALTERATIVE AND LIVER TONIC. It invariably relieves the following disorders: Chronic Torpidity of the Liver, Spleen, and Kidneys, Bladder. It cures Dyspepsia and Scrofula, Eruptions and Blotches of the Skin. It cures mercurial and old venerial diseases. Some will ask, how can this one medicine cure all of these diseases. The answer is this, it is so compounded to answer all of the requirements of those symptoms, being compounded of the best and purest and most reliable Liver medicine, tonic, alteratives, diuretic and disinfectants that belongs to the vegetable kingdom. This medicine is the result of twenty years experience. I used it in my private practice for the last 20 years, and within the last 6 months I have sold over $1,000 worth of it, and I have to hear of the first complaint. I claim and assert it without the fear of contradiction from any that have tried it, to be superior to any of the preparations of the day for the diseases that I recommend it for.

I have never advertised this medicine before. I have always been opposed to advertising nostrums and quack medicines, but having been persuaded, for years, by my friends, I have concluded to do so, for the good of all that may avail themselves of the benefit of it. I could give thousands of testimonials to the happy effects of this medicine, but being satisfied that it will recommend and sustain itself, and all I ask is to give it a fair and impartial trial. Take it by the direction on the bottle, and if you do not find it all, or more than I claim for it, then I will agree to stop the sale.

I put up my medicine in ONE and TWO DOLLAR bottles, to suit persons and patients.

One word more to those that are suffering with Cancers. Don't let the Doctor dishearten you. For the most of them will, because they can't cure you themselves, will tell you that you can't be cured.

I have been curing Cancers for twenty years, and have never failed but in one case, and that case was beyond medical aid. If you have a CANCER call and see me, and I will tell you in a half hour if I can cure you; will charge nothing for examination, and if I cure you, will be reasonable in may charges.

CERTIFICATES.

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK—Dear Sir:—This is to certify that my wife and daughter, Mrs. W. H. Jones, of Union Point, Ga., and our cook woman, have used your Alterative Liver Medicine, and do all cheerfully say it has had a fine effect; has entirely relieved them of their liver affection. Dr. Cheny, of Newborn, said my little grandchild, was laboring under an affection of the liver, and also was badly affected with Asthma. I learn he has been entirely relieved. Our cook woman is about the turn of life, and has been suffering with diseased liver, and general debility of the whole system, together with inflammatory rheumatism. She says she is entirely cured by the use of your Medicine. I cheerfully recommend it to the public, believing it to be a good medicine.

Yours truly,
REV. W. A. FLORENCE,
Pastor of the M. E. Church, South, Madison, Ga.

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK—Dear Sir:—I have used your Alterative and Liver Medicine, and have derived great benefit from it. Other members of my family have used it with like benefit, and I can confidently recommend it as a good remedy for the diseases you propose to relieve.

Yours, C. M. IRWIN,
Pastor Baptist Church.
Madison, Ga., September 6, 1870.

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK—Dear Sir:—I have had the misfortune to be afflicted with a liver and dyspeptic affection for the last twenty years. I have scarcely been able to eat or digest my food without pain, and have often tried various remedies, but found no relief until I took a course of your Alterative Medicine. I am now well and hearty. I cheerfully recommend all persons who may be afflicted with indigestion, to give these Medicines a trial, and I am sure they will be relieved.

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK—Dear Sir:—I have been laboring under a dyspeptic and liver affection for a number of years past, so much so that I had reduced in flesh to a mere skeleton, and became cancerous, having a large one on my jaw, which had resisted treatment, or rather care, for twelve years. I commenced taking your Alterative and Liver Medicine, which has affected a permanent cure. Your Cancer Plaster took out the cancer, and I am now well and hearty, and have been for two years. I recommend all persons, afflicted with the above diseases, to try your remedies.

T. P. PEACOCK.
Madison, Ga.

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK—Dear Sir:—This is to certify that I have, for the last eight years, been afflicted with a canturious affection of the skin, which is greatly relieved by your Stillingia and Indian Hemp. I cheerfully recommend its use to all persons who may be thus afflicted. I find it to be all you represent it to be.

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK—Sir:—This is to certify that I have used your Cathartic Liver Medicine in my family for the last two years with the most happy results. I do not hesitate to recommend it to all those who may be afflicted with torpid condition of the liver, skin diseases, scrofulous affection, etc. I find it to be all you represent it to be.

DR. JOHN BULL'S Great Remedies.

DR. JOHN BULL,

Manufacturer and Vender of the Celebrated

Smith's Tonic Syrup,

FOR THE CURE OF

AGUE AND FEVER,

—OR—

Chills and Fever.

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the safe, certain, speedy and permanent cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southwestern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion, that in no case whatever will it fail to cure, if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually, this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order; should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of BULL'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient.

Bull's Worm Destroyer.

To my United States and World-wide Readers.

I have received many testimonials from professional and medical men, as my almanacs and various publications have shown, all of which are genuine. The following letter from a highly educated and popular physician in Georgia, is certainly one of the most sensible communications I have ever received. Dr. Clement knows exactly what he speaks of, and his testimony deserves to be written in letters of gold. Hear what the Doctor says of BULL'S WORM DESTROYER:

VILLANOW, Walker County, Ga., June 29, 1869.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: I have recently given your "Worm Destroyer" several trials, and find it wonderfully efficacious. It has not failed in a single instance to have the wished for effect. I am doing a pretty large country practice, and have daily use for some article of the kind. I am free to confess that I know of no remedy recommended by the ablest authors that is so certain and speedy in its effects. On the contrary, they are uncertain in the extreme. My object in writing you is to find out upon what terms I can get the medicine direct from you. If I can get it upon easy terms, I shall use a great deal of it. I am aware that the use of such articles is contrary to the teachings and practice of a great majority of the regular line M. D.'s but I see no just cause or good sense in discarding a remedy which we know to be efficient, simply because we may be ignorant of its combination. For my part, I shall make it a rule to use all and any means to alleviate suffering humanity which I may be able to command—not hesitating because some one more ingenious than myself may have learned its effects first, and secured the sole right to secure that knowledge. However, I am by no means an advocate or supporter of the thousands of worthless nostrums that flood the country, that purport to cure all manner of disease to which human flesh is heir. Please reply soon, and inform me of your best terms. I am, sir, most respectfully,

JULIUS P. CLEMENT M. D

Bull's Sarsaparilla.

A Good Reason for the Captain's Faith.

READ THE CAPTAIN'S LETTER AND THE LETTER FROM HIS MOTHER.

BENTON BARRACK'S, Mo., April 30 1866.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: Knowing the efficiency of your Sarsaparilla, and, the healing and beneficial qualities it possesses, I send you the following statement of my case.

I was wounded two years ago—was taken prisoner and confined for sixteen months. Being moved so often, my wounds have not healed yet. I have not set up a moment since I was wounded. I am shot through the hips. My general health is impaired, and I need something to assist nature. I have more faith in your Sarsaparilla than in anything else. I wish that that is genuine. Please express me half a dozen bottles, and oblige.

Capt. C. P. JOHNSON,
St. Louis, Mo.

P. S.—The following was written April 30, 1866 by Mrs. Jennie Johnson, mother of Captain John son:

DR. BULL—Dear Sir: My husband, Dr. C. S Johnson, was a skillful surgeon and physician in Central New York, where he died, leaving the above C. P. Johnson to my care. At thirteen years of age he had a chronic diarrhœa and scrofula, for which I gave him your Sarsaparilla. IT CURED HIM. I have for ten years recommended it to many in New York, Ohio and Iowa, for scrofula, fever scores and general debility. Perfect success has attended it. The cures effected in some cases of scrofula and fever sores were almost miraculous. I am very anxious for my son to again have recourse to your Sarsaparilla. He is fearful of getting a spurious article, hence his writing to you for it. His wounds were terrible, but I believe he will recover.

Respectfully JENNIE JOHNSON

Testimony of Medical Men

STONEY POINT, White Co., Ark., May 23, 1866.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: Last February I was in Louisville purchasing drugs, and I got some of your Sarsaparilla and Cedron Bitters.

My son-in-law, who was with me in the store, has been down with rheumatism for some time, commenced on the Bitters, and soon found his general health improved.

Dr. Gist, who has been in bad health, tried them, and he also improved.

Dr. Coffee, who has been in bad health for several years—stomach and liver affected—he improved very much by the use of your Bitters. Indeed, the Cedron Bitters has given you great popularity in this settlement. I think I could sell a great quantity of your medicines this fall, especially of your Cedron Bitters and Sarsaparilla. Ship me via Memphis, care Rickett & Neely.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

ROSADALIS!

THE Great American Health Restorer, purifies the blood and cures Scrofula, Syphilis, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Diseases of Women, and all Chronic Affections of the Blood, Liver and Kidneys. Recommended by the Medical Faculty and many thousands of our best citizens.

Read the testimony of Physicians and patients who have used Rosadalis; send for our Rosadalis Guide to Health Book, or Almanac for this year, which we publish for gratuitous distribution; it will give you much valuable information.

Dr. R. W. Carr, of Baltimore, says:

I take pleasure in recommending your Rosadalis as a very powerful alterative. I have seen it used in two cases with happy results—one in a case of secondary syphilis, in which the patient pronounced himself cured after having taken five bottles of your medicine. The other is a case of Scrofula of long standing, which is rapidly improving under its use, and the indications are that the patient will soon recover. I have carefully examined the formula by which your Rosadalis is made, and find it an excellent compound of alterative ingredients.

Dr. Sparks, of Nicholasville, Ky., says he has used Rosadalis in cases of Scrofula and Secondary Syphilis with satisfactory results—as a cleaner of the Blood I know no better remedy.

Samuel G. McFadden, Murfreesboro', Tenn., says:

I have used seven bottles of Rosadalis, and am entirely cured of Rheumatism; send me four bottles, as I wish it for my brother, who has scrofulous sore eyes.

Benjamin Bechtol, of Lima, Ohio, writes I have suffered for twenty years with an inveterate eruption over my whole body; a short time since I purchased a bottle of Rosadalis and it effected a perfect cure.
